

PERSONNEL MANAGEMENT

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

Purpose: An important element of a sound personnel system is the existence of a formal method that allows employees to resolve their grievances with management fairly and expeditiously. Good procedural process can help to reduce personnel dissatisfaction, increase morale, identify problems in the organization, and increase the positive perception employees have of the organization. The North Little Rock Police has established this policy to educate employees on the Grievance Procedure.

Policy Statement: It is the intent of this policy to provide sworn and civilian members of the NLRPD with a procedure in which grievances may be brought forth, investigated and culminated in a consistent and equitable manner.

1.4.5 There will be no repercussions involving an officer that files a grievance for any reason.

1.5 Responsibilities

1.5.1 The Chief of Police is responsible for the coordination of the grievance process including the timely progress of the grievance procedure through succeeding steps. All but the most serious should be resolved informally at the unit level. [CALEA 22.4.2]

1.5.2 The respective Division Commander shall review and maintain records of grievances filed within a Division for purposes of correcting deficiencies within the Department. [CALEA 22.4.2]

1.5.3 If the grievance involves an officer's supervisor, the chain of command may be circumvented; and the grievance may be filed with the next highest level of supervision.

1.5.4 The Chief of Police or designee will conduct an annual analysis of all grievances filed each year to determine if there are any training or policy needs. [CALEA 22.4.3]

1.5.5 Matters under the administrative control of the Chief of Police are not subject to the grievance procedure.

1.5.6 For example: The fact that one officer is promoted over another officer is not a grievance matter, while the following of procedure and process under which the promotion was made may be a grievance matter.

2 Non-Sworn Members

Non-Sworn members will file grievances in accordance with the NLR Administrative Personnel Policies and Procedures, section 5-008: Complaint Resolution Policy and Procedure.

3 Supervisory Members

Supervisory members will file grievances in accordance with the Statement of Agreement between the City and the Supervisory Contract.

4. Non-Contractual Grievances

4.1 All members may file non-contractual grievances with their immediate supervisor in a timely manner.

4.2 The Department believes that most complaints can be settled quickly and informally between supervisors and members who are willing to discuss and resolve work-related problems as they arise.

4.3 If the incident involves the member's supervisor, the chain of command can be circumvented to the next level of the member's chain of command.

4.4 If the member is not satisfied with the outcome, the member may initiate the grievance to the next highest level of the Chain of Command, up to and including the Chief of Police.
