

SPECIAL OPERATIONS

FUNERAL PROTOCOL

Purpose: The purpose of this policy is to establish guidelines, responsibilities, and procedures regarding the participation of the North Little Rock Police Department at funerals.

Policy Statement: It is the policy of the North Little Rock Police Department to appropriately honor deceased members of the Department or dignitaries based on the highest consideration for the dignity, respect, tributes, and traditions associated with the person to which the honors are being rendered.

Summary of Changes:

Definitions

Killed in the line of duty: A member who is killed, either directly or indirectly, while acting under color of authority, as a result of a criminal act of another person, or as the result of an emergency response or lifesaving act.

Died in the line of duty: A member who dies as a result of accidental means or natural causes (e.g., traffic accident, heart attack or other non-violent incident) while on duty.

Non-duty death: The death of a member as a result of a non-duty related illness or injury.

Retired death: The death of a member who is in good standing and is fully separated from the Department via retirement with 20 or more years of service.

Other death: Any case of death not specifically defined above, to include suicide.

Police Escort: A minimum of two marked vehicles for the funeral procession, one of which will lead the procession and the other will trail the procession.

Honor Detail: A contingent of at least three uniformed officers designated and trained (one of which will be an officer in charge), who will be in attendance at the memorial service, funeral and burial, or any combination thereof. This detail includes pallbearers, casket post, and flag folding ceremony.

Firing Party: A contingent of designated and trained uniformed officers consisting of one officer in charge, and three, five, or seven rifle/shotgun bearers and bugler.

Pallbearers: A contingent of either six or eight uniformed officers who may be provided on a volunteer basis if the family does not designate specific pallbearers.

Casket Post: A contingent of at least two uniformed officers (one relief) posted at the casket during visitation of similar service before the funeral.

Dignitary: A person who holds a position of high regard in the community due to public service as a high level public official or major contributor to the community.

Family Resource Officer: An officer assigned by the Chief of Police to act as a facilitator between the family and the Department and assist the family in an advisory capacity.

3 Ancillary Procedures

- 3.1 The appropriate honors for member deaths not specifically defined above will be determined by the Chief of Police.
- 3.2 The death of a dignitary shall be handled on a case by case basis. Honors awarded, if any, shall be respective to the dignity and honor associated with the person to which the honors are being rendered. In all cases, the Chief of Police has sole discretion whether to offer or obligate Department resources.
- 3.3 Specific duties of each honors contingent will be determined and coordinated for each individual funeral, as appropriate.
- 3.4 Procedures must remain flexible and subject to change to meet special requests from the surviving family, or to respond to other conditions that may arise. In all instances, the surviving family's wishes govern the Department's participation within the provisions of this policy. Any departures from this policy directive must be approved by the Chief of Police.
- 3.5 No funeral or honors will be conducted not provided for herein.
- 3.6 If asked to provide funeral honors for outside agencies, the honors and services shall follow the appropriate levels as stated herein.

4 Responsibilities

- 4.1 Family Resource Officer – This officer is appointed by the Chief of Police and shall assist the family in the following matters:
